THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL CATALOGUE: YORK COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Thirty-Ninth Annual Catalogue: York Collegiate Institute By the isolation of the laboratories and the furnace the risk of fire is reduced to a minimum. Communicating with Memorial Hall, and also by corridors with the several cloak rooms is the Main School Room. This is on the first floor, and is spacious, lofty, well lighted, comfortably furnished with single desks, and is planning in accordance with the latest improvements in educational requirements. In the wings are six ample Recitation Rooms. On the second floor, immediately above and equal in size to the main school room, is the Auditorium, with seating capacity for about five hundred. The Library and Philosophical Lecture Rooms are on the third floor, fitted up with handsome cases for books and apparatus and with other requisite furniture. The utmost attention has been given to the heating and ventilation of the entire building. Design The design of the Founder contemplated a thorough course of academic instruction and training, combined with practical Christian culture; and the distinctive aim of the institution is to develop the moral along with the intellectual faculties, and to inspire a love for learning and genuine reverence for the sacred truths of our Christian religion. The design is based on a broad and liberal catholicity, which is maintained purely and strictly without a sectarian bias; and the administration of the school is pledged to absolute impartiality in regard to religious faith, and perfect respect for all. In all that pertains to this feature of the Institute the purpose is simply to maintain the healthy atmosphere of a Christian school. The duties of each day begin with a short religious service; and...
