In order to present a partially connected argument upon the charges and doctrines of the memorial, we desire to strip it, in advance, of those collateral allegations, which tend to confuse, although they do not obscure, the material purpose of the appeal. The result to which all tends, and to the attainment of which all is made subsidiary, is the establishment, by the agency of Congress, of a constitution which failed of success through the instrumentality of effort by violence. With the dispersion of the insurgent forces at Chepachet, and the prior flight of their leader, ended the attempt to impose by force upon the people of Rhode Island a form of government which, when sought through the legitimate channels, had been rejected. And in December, 1842, a constitution, liberal in its provisions, ample in its concessions to the claim of extended suffrage, was, by the deliberate...
