In fact, it is possible today to give the classroom teacher a considerable body of definite directions for the teaching of spelling based on accurate scientific studies. In the light of these studies the following suggestions are offered: 1. Adopt a minimal essential list of words. 2. Aim at 100 per cent efficiency on this list. 3. Give not more than five new words per day. 4. When the group contains not over forty-five pupils and is sufficiently homogeneous, conduct but one spelling class for the entire group. 5. Make the period not over fifteen to twenty minutes in duration. 6. Make no provision for a study period apart from the regular recitation period. 7. If the group method of instruction is employed, conduct...
