A Flawed God

By Arjun Shekhar

Hachette India, New Delhi, 2011. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. An ordinary corporate executive turns assassin to save his firm from ruin with the help of the master of a secret guild out to revolutionize the corporation. Sanchit Mishra a.k.a. Sancho is staring bleakly at his performance appraisal form when an invitation from the mysterious Progress in Work Collective lands on his desk. His colleague and confidante, Pause Daniels, urges him to dig deeper. Soon he finds himself sucked into a secret world of anonymous superheroes out to revolutionize the business world by attacking that flawed god it worships - the share market. This parallel life pumps some self-esteem into Sancho, preparing him to do what's needed when the firm is taken over by a multinational and an ugly industrial relations situation ensues. The case for the transfer of ownership from shareholders to employees is made through Sancho and Pause's story in this witty, fast-paced corporate allegory. Page Extent: 296.
